Disclaimer for the Use of OpenAI GPT-3.5-turbo-instruct Model

This service utilizes OpenAI's GPT-3.5-turbo-instruct, an advanced language model developed by OpenAI. Please be aware of the following:

1. Accuracy: While GPT-3.5-turbo-instruct strives for accuracy, it is not infallible. Information provided may not always be correct, complete, or up to date. Users should verify critical information independently.
2. Confidentiality: Do not input personal, confidential, or sensitive information into the model, as it does not have the capability to maintain confidentiality or privacy of the data.
3. Content Generation: The model generates responses based on a wide range of internet sources and training data. However, it may occasionally produce content that is biased, inappropriate, or offensive. OpenAI and the service providers do not endorse such content.
4. Use at Your Own Risk: The service is provided "as is" and your use of the model is at your own risk. OpenAI and the service providers are not liable for any decisions, actions, or outcomes resulting from your use of the model.
5. No Substitute for Professional Advice: Responses from the model should not be considered professional advice. Always consult with qualified professionals for matters requiring expert opinion or specialized knowledge.
6. Updates to Terms: These terms may be updated periodically to reflect changes in the model's capabilities and policies.

By using this service, you acknowledge and agree to these terms and conditions.
